FOREST COUNTY POTAWATOMI COMMUNITY

In the Matter of:

Canons of Judicial Ethics
For The
Forest County Potawatomi
Tribal Courts

Rule of the Court
Order Number 4
Dated: Jan. 1, 1996

By Virtue Of The Authority Invested In The Court Under Section 1.04 Of The Forest County Potawatomi Tribal Court Code, The Following Supplemental Canon of Ethics Number Eleven Is Hereby Promulgated As A Rule of the Court, Order Number 3, Canons of Judicial Ethics For The Forest County Potawatomi Tribal Courts effective this date:

Introduction

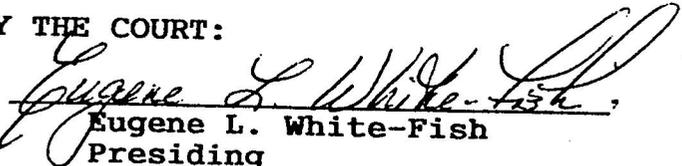

This is a Supplement to the Canons setting forth standards for judicial conduct by the Judges of the Forest County Potawatomi Tribal Court. The purpose of the Canons is to assure fairness, due process and integrity in the administration of justice within the Forest County Potawatomi Community.

Canon Eleven

Forest County Tribal Court Judges shall refrain from rendering legal advice or personal counselling except in the course of deciding or otherwise administering cases which are officially pending before the Court in order to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest or prejudgment of matters which might ultimately be before the Court. All persons seeking advice or counselling from any Tribal Court Judge will be referred to an appropriate legal services agency, or given a list of attorneys and tribal court advocates or other appropriate counselors or agencies.

Dated this 1st day of January, 1996
